WOMEX A – Z

Badges and Wristbands

WOMEX will issue wristbands as well as badges on arrival. Both must be worn at all times during WOMEX 12 and are not transferable. For this reason, delegates may be asked to provide proof of identity. WOMEX is unable to replace badges and/or wristbands that have been lost. Replacements are charged a full price registration.

Catering

Several catering spots will be open at WOMEX's main venue Helexpo during the Trade Fair opening hours. A wide variety of food is on offer: snacks, sandwiches, salads, pastries, and several warm dishes including vegetarian options and local specialties. Both, Pavilion 5 and 6, have cafes which are open during the Trade Fair. Hot meals will be served in the restaurant located on the upper floor of Pavilion 6 (open 12:00 – 16:00). During the Night Showcases there will be several bars serving snacks and drinks in Pavilion 12 and in the Vellidis building.

No substantial meals will be served at Megaro. Please appease your hunger before you rush to the WOMEX Opening on Wednesday night. A Networking Breakfast – courtesy of WOMEX and Helexpo – will be served on Sunday morning 10:00 before the Award Ceremony starts.

The DJ Summit venue, Kitchen Bar, hosts a restaurant, open until 2:00 am in the morning.

Cloakrooms

Two cloakrooms will be available at Helexpo: one inside Pavilion 6, right behind the Registration Counter; and another one at the entrance of the Vellidis building, where visitors are requested to leave their jackets/coats before entering the festival area. Plus, there's a cloakroom at Megaro, the venue hosting the WOMEX Opening and Award Ceremony. All cloakrooms are free of charge.

Daycases

As a complementary presentation to the Night Showcases, WOMEX Daycases are devoted to a specific artist/style. A brief introductory speech before each Daycase offers the chance to learn more about the music. There will be two per day: Yom & Wang Li (France/China) and Groupa (Sweden); Khyam Allami (Iraq/UK) and Zé Luis (Cape Verde); Janusz Prusinowski Trio (Poland) and Gochag Askarov (Azerbaijan). The Daycases take place during the midday Conference break, Thursday to Saturday, 13:00 – 14:00 and 14:15 – 15:15 at the Daycase Stage in Pavilion 4.

Festival Tickets

The WOMEX Showcase Festival is also open to the general public. A limited number of tickets for all Night Showcases are available for sale at the box office at Vellidis, entrance gate number 2. Bring along your partner, friends or family at night – see www.womex.com for more information.

- › Cover Flap/WOMEX Venues

Filming and Recording

Audio and audio-visual recordings are not allowed without express, contractual permission. Forms are available at the Media Counter in the registration area in Pavilion 6.

Internet

There will be Wi-Fi free of charge at Helexpo. A number of public Internet terminals can be found in Pavilions 5 and 6. Print and copy facilities are available free of charge in Pavilion 5.

- › Cover Flap/WOMEX Venues

Language

To keep communication between WOMEX participants practical and efficient, WOMEX has chosen International English as the lingua franca. Adopted by the Internet, the professional music community in general and the world music community in particular, this was the logical choice for successful interaction.

Media Counter

Journalists needing specific information, artist or speaker contacts, recording permission, a slot in the radio studio or a quiet interview room should come to the Media Counter in Pavilion 6 – the media team will be happy to help you.

- › Cover Flap/WOMEX Venues

Merchandising

If you want to buy CDs of the Showcase artists, you can often do so from the artists themselves, either right at the stage or at the stage entrance after the concert.

Networking Breakfast

Join us for a final WOMEX Networking Breakfast served at Megaro's Foyer on Sunday from 10:00 – 12:00 just before the Award Ceremony, to clink glasses one more time with your friends and partners before everyone heads back home.

Student Tickets

WOMEX is offering tickets at a reduced price to students, giving access to all WOMEX daytime and nighttime events from Wednesday to Sunday, 17 to 21 October, for 80 euro plus VAT. For more information, see www.womex.com/realwomex/2012/pdf/students.pdf

Transport

WOMEX's main venue for day- and nighttime activities, Helexpo, is situated in the centre of Thessaloniki, between the Archeological Museum and the Aristotle University. The beautiful sea front with the White Tower, the historical landmark of the city, is just a 5-minute walk away.

Due to Helexpo's central location it has a good bus connection to the airport, to the train station as well as to the Opening and Closing Venue, Megaro; and to Kitchen Bar hosting the WOMEX 12 DJ Summit Showcases.

Bus number 78 takes you from the airport to Helexpo and then continues to the main train station; it operates at 20-minute intervals throughout the day (78) and 30-minute intervals during the night (N78). A taxi from the airport to the city centre or Helexpo won't cost you more than 20-25 euro. The bus routes between the main train station and Helexpo are numbers 2, 3, 8, 10, 14, 17, 37 and 78.

There are several bus routes that stop at different bus stations around Helexpo at 2-minute intervals (numbers 2, 3, 5, 6, 7, 8, 10, 11, 12, 14, 15, 17, 24, 27, 28, 31, 33, 37, 39, 45, 58, 78, 78N, 83). The venue has two accessible entrances: the northern gate, number 1, on Egnatia Street; and the southern gate, number 2, on Stratou Avenue.

The distance between WOMEX's main venue, Helexpo, and Megaro, which hosts the Opening and Award Ceremony, is approximately 3.5 kilometres. You may choose to walk along the sea front, take a taxi, or catch the bus (approximately 9 stops). The bus routes connecting Helexpo and Megaro are numbers 5, 6, 33, 78 from bus station Lefkos Pirgos, close to the White Tower.

Kitchen Bar hosting the WOMEX DJ Summit is approximately 2.5 kilometres from the main venue Helexpo. You could either take a 25-minute walk along the seaside or jump on the bus at H.A.N.TH bus station, close to the southern gate, number 2. However, buses stop running around midnight. Number 3, 5 and 6 will still pass by H.A.N.TH in the hour after midnight. Early birds can choose bus number 3, 12 or 39 and get out at Plateia ("square") Emporion; number 58 until the terminal stop, Eleftheriou Venizelou; the airport bus number 78 to Plateia Aristotelous; or take number 5, 6 or 33 and leave the bus at Plateia Eleftherias – the bus stop which is closest to the venue. Take a taxi to get to your hotel after the club. The nearest taxi station is at Plateia Aristotelous. Maybe you can even stroll home as many of the hotels are within walking distance in the area.

Please call a taxi should you need one. You will find taxi numbers on our "Useful Information" page in the Guide. They will usually pick you up in under 10 minutes. It's a 10-15-minute drive from Helexpo to Megaro; and even shorter from Helexpo to Kitchen Bar.

And if you take your own car: Helexpo provides parking space in Pavilion 17 – free of charge. There is also free parking at Megaro; however, it is usually very crowded. Please note that the parking close to Kitchen Bar is not free.

virtualWOMEX

Our online platform is a jack of all trades: Want to present your company, artist, event or recording? Want to find agents in Finland, festivals in Brazil or labels in Japan? Want to know what is new in the global community? At www.womex.com/virtual you will find everything you need to boost your business.

A special bonus: all those who registered for virtualWOMEX and have valid accounts as of 24 August 2012 will be listed in the WOMEX Guide – even if they are not attending WOMEX this year. To distinguish those who do attend from those who don't, we have added "virtualWOMEX ONLY" underneath the latter's company information in the Delegates chapter – the most comprehensive directory in the world music biz.

Getting Around

Public Transport

Buses are the main means of public transport in Thessaloniki. The ticket for one route costs 0.90 euro at the ticket machines on the bus or 0.80 euro if purchased at the small white ticket shops or kiosks around the city. One ticket for a 90-minute trip (2 routes) costs 1 euro on the bus or 0.90 euro at the ticket shop/kiosk. You may also purchase a 24-hour ticket for 4 euro. The ticket machines on the bus do not return any change, so please make sure that you have the exact amount available in coins. Tickets purchased at kiosks must be validated inside the bus. See also "Things to See" in this section for more information on Thessaloniki sightseeing by bus.

Rent-a-Bike

Discover Thessaloniki by bike and take a tour along the seafont. A full week's bike rental will cost you 40 euro.

Places to Eat

Thessaloniki has a very rich culinary culture which is strongly incorporated to the citizens' mentality and their daily life. This culture can be easily traced in today's food scenery. The multinational past of the city has had a strong influence on the local cuisine and today Thessaloniki is one of the top culinary destinations in Greece. On the following pages you will find just a short selection of places, restaurants and areas where you can satisfy your palate in Thessaloniki.

Quick Meals/Take-Away Around Helexpo

Within walking distance of 5 to 15 minutes from Helexpo, you can find a multitude of delicious take-away snacks, as well as small traditional taverns for a quick and tasty lunch or dinner for a reasonable price.

With a Turkish name meaning "No fish", Yok Balik serves mainly gyros wraps (pita with pork or chicken meat, filled with various salads).

Transportation

A recently launched and highly useful tool for working out how to get around the city is Thessaloniki's Urban Mobility Center website: www.mobithess.gr

Airport

Your main airport destination is the Thessaloniki Airport, International Airport of Macedonia (SKG): www.thessaloniki-airport.com

Train

The train service offers national connections only – no international connections are currently available. The rail connection to Athens runs several times a day and the journey takes approximately five hours. The train station is quite centrally located and buses and taxis can be used to reach the city centre. Timetables and more information can be found on the National Railway website: <http://tickets.trainose.gr/dromologia> (go the upper right-hand corner to switch from Greek to English).

Bus

The only public transportation within Thessaloniki is the bus service. The official website of the Organisation of Urban Transportation of Thessaloniki is: www.oasth.gr
